Dear Friends,

Welcome to our new A.E.B. Christmas Gift Guide.

Paul tells the believers in Philippians iv6, "Being confident of this very thing, that He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ." God always finishes what He starts. We see the same thing in Ruth 3v18, Naomi is confident that Boaz "will not be in rest, until he have finished the thing this day." In Deuteronomy 6v23, Moses tells the children of Israel that the Lord "brought us out from thence, that He might bring us in." The Lord Himself, in John 13, after He had washed the disciples feet, "wiped them with the towel wherewith He was girded." He finished what He started. Whatever problems we face in this quickly-changing world, we can be sure that the Lord will not abandon us, He will finish what He started.

We are very pleased to be able to produce another catalogue for your interest. We hope you enjoy looking through it.

On the page opposite, you will see some Harry Ironside reprints. Day by Day with the Saviour was our bestseller the last two years. We have recently added Words to Live By, a guide to Bible words, very helpful for believers of all ages.

On the back page, you will find a small "passalong" Christmas book, The Heart of Christmas. Full of gospel content, this is an ideal book to give to a friend or neighbour.

On page 8, notice a very interesting reprint, Recollections of an Evangelist, detailing early gospel work in the Devonshire countryside.

Take a look at pages 18 & 19 for new additions to our exciting range of attractive slates and coasters.

Finally, on page 29, you will see a stunning new range of Bibles, from Hosanna Revival. Featuring beautiful covers, based on hand-painted designs, exquisite production with plenty of room for notes.

We would like to thank you all once again for your support another year. It is always a pleasure to serve you. We trust the Lord will bless you all and that you will know His peace and presence this Christmas season.

Yours on behalf of the A.E.B. team,
Ricky McCoubrey.

Day by Day with the Saviour

The Continual Burnt Offering

A 366-day devotional journey through the Bible from Genesis to Revelation

Every daily entry has:

- A Scripture Text
- Dr. Ironside's devotional thoughts
- A poem or hymn

"This book is not intended to take the place of daily Bible reading, but rather to offer suggestive helps by focusing the attention on particular passages and offering simple comments designed to move the heart to a deeper sense of responsibility to God and devotion to our Lord Jesus Christ. The notes are mine, some new and others selected from my own books. The poems have been gathered from many sources." H. A. Ironside

WORDS TO LIVE BY

These two volumes together provide an excellent handbook for Christian living. Each section is concise and easy to read, while presented clearly to be readily understood. The teaching found in these valuable writings covers key topics of Christian life in a helpful and challenging manner. They would make an excellent gift for any believer.

Great Words of the Gospel

Based on a series of addresses given at Moody Church, these ten studies cover the fundamentals of the Christian faith. They were originally intended for recent converts but they would benefit mature believers as well. The ten words covered are:

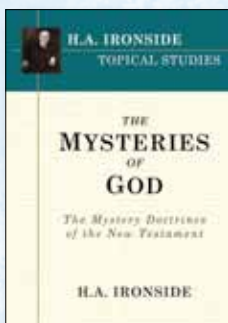

Regeneration • Redemption • Substitution • Justification • Sanctification
Intercession • Resurrection • Expectation • Manifestation • Glorification

Sailing With Paul

From conversion to the judgment seat of Christ, Ironside charts the Christian voyage, stopping at sixteen "points of interest," covering key aspects of Christian life for new believers and those long on the road.

THE PHONE CALL

Northern Ireland's Response to the War in Ukraine

When war broke out in Ukraine in February 2022, God touched the heart of one man in County Down, Northern Ireland, to fill his van with food and aid and drive to Poland where millions of Ukrainian people had fled to. He made a simple phone call to a friend and that phone call triggered an incredible display of generosity from people all over Northern Ireland – bigger and better than they could ever have imagined.

He never got taking his van to Poland but in less than a week, 43 lorries filled with aid set off for Poland and in the 12 months that followed, over half a million pounds was raised to buy food, essential items and generators for those affected most by the war.

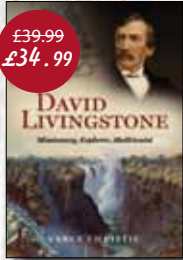

This book is an account of what can happen in a very short space of time when people unite together to show God's love in a practical but powerful way. There are dozens of photographs which show the vast scale of the operation and the impact it made much more vividly than words could ever do.

The Second Epistle to Timothy

Mark Sweetnam

Paul's final epistle is written by a man under sentence of death, suffering trouble as an evil doer. His busy life of service appears to be dwindling out in captivity and confinement and desertion by those that he had counted his friends. Against this background, he writes with intimacy to Timothy, his genuine son in the faith. With all this for context, we might have expected the letter to be full of bitter recriminations or to express a grim and helpless resignation in the face of the relentless march of Roman legal process. But we search the epistle in vain for these things. At its commencement, Paul presents himself as an apostle 'according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus' and that opening note of victory re-echoes throughout. Paul rejoices in a course triumphantly completed. That imminent departure, however, breeds no detachment from the ongoing work. Paul's continued interest in the work of God and the preservation of His truth is evident as he cautions and charges Timothy. Paul's final words have lost nothing of their poignancy: this epistle still has the capacity to move us. And they have lost nothing of their power: Paul's charges to Timothy are still relevant today, as, amidst the perilous times of the last days, we seek with God's help to guard the precious deposit entrusted by Paul to Timothy and now, by faithful men, to us.

A Desert Journey: Egypt - Sinai - Canaan

Over the course of one hundred brief meditations, this book traces the wilderness journey of the Israelites and the “things which happened unto them” as they followed the cloudy pillar to the promised land. You will be encouraged and admonished as you journey with them.

His Son Jesus Christ Our Lord

This book contains fifty-two meditations on the great subject of “His Son Jesus Christ Our Lord.” The hope is that, in this more permanent form, they will continue to help God’s people appreciate the excellencies and glories of the Lord Jesus Christ.

BITE-SIZE PROPHECY GUIDES

by Donald Cameron

Handy-size (A6) digestable prophecy guides. £5.99 each

EXPLORING PROPHECY IN A WORLD IN CRISIS PIECING TOGETHER GOD'S PROMISES

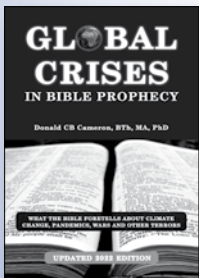

This book is equally appropriate for new believers who want to explore Bible prophecy, or for those who have long been believers and may want to make up for lost time, as they see the world now lurching from crisis to crisis. Yet others, who do not yet profess to be Christians, may be thrilled to discover that God has revealed much about the future, and will welcome them if they repent and believe in the Lord Jesus Christ as their Saviour. As well as being a general introduction to prophetic study, this book uses the Book of Revelation as a template for coordinating all other unfulfilled prophecies. A glossary is included.

LET THE READER UNDERSTAND DANIEL'S KEY TO GOD'S TIMETABLE

There is a command in Matthew's and Mark's Gospels which, if obeyed, clarifies most of the perceived problems in God's declared timetable for the future, but which, if ignored, leads to numerous misunderstandings, and diminishes the authority of Bible-believing Christians in the eyes of a worried world. This book reviews the passage in Daniel to which Jesus referred on the Tuesday before His crucifixion. This passage proves that Jesus' Second Coming has opening and closing events, with, between them, the Church safe in Heaven and Israel active in a world undergoing unprecedented tribulation, before Millennial restoration.
